First Annual UMM Senior Banquet

Summary: The University of Minnesota, Morris Class of 2007 will be honored during the First Annual UMM Senior Banquet, which is being sponsored entirely by the University of Minnesota, Morris Alumni Association. Only those students who plan to graduate in December 2006 or May 2007 may attend.

(November 21, 2006)-The University of Minnesota, Morris Class of 2007 will be honored during the First Annual UMM Senior Banquet, which is being sponsored entirely by the University of Minnesota, Morris Alumni Association. The semi-formal occasion, for which seniors will receive a formal invitation, will be held Friday, Dec. 8, in Oyate Hall of the UMM Student Center. Only those students who plan to graduate in December 2006 or May 2007 may attend.

A short program will include remarks by UMM Chancellor Jacquie Johnson and UMM Alumni Association President Juli Wagner '92. In addition, the Senior Gift Program leadership team will announce the Class of 2007 legacy gift to UMM. The banquet will be the official fundraising kickoff for the senior gift program, which is being initiated this year at UMM.

A RSVP for the event is requested and an enclosed card that will accompany the invitation must be returned by December 1. A reception will begin at 5:30 p.m., followed by dinner at 6:15 p.m.

“We look forward to celebrating with our graduating students the forthcoming successful completion of their UMM career,” said Carla Riley, director of alumni relations and annual giving at UMM.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity.
